Croatan Hosts Annual Lodge Banquet

Isaac Kirkman

To close out 2017, and enter into 2018, Croatan Lodge hosted the annual lodge banquet on Saturday, February 3rd, 2018. It was a later date than planned... thanks to the snow... but as always, a good time was had by all. The event was kicked off by an exquisite North Carolinian feast—BBQ. We then had the honor of hearing former Klahican Lodge Chief, Ethan Syster deliver an encouraging message. From there, we rolled into the night’s awards. The Fall Fellowship and Indian affairs winners were recognized. Those scout that completed the requirements to be a First Year Arrowman received the like named coveted patch. The 2017 Vigil class was recognized again. With the tragic passing of Mr. Arnie Formo, Croatan decided to pay tribute to the man that gave so much to the Lodge. Once we had laughed over the stories of Arnie’s time at Boddie, we recognized one adult and one youth that would receive the Founder’s Award. Mathew Hodges and Gil Respass received this well deserved award. Mathew delivered the State of the Lodge Address and the new Lodge officers for the 2018 year were installed, among them, was the new Lodge Chief, Kyle Furgason. Kyle delivered a powerful message to give everyone a glimpse at the incredible year that is beginning to unfold.
