

Croatan’s Round-up

If you missed this year’s Conclave, then you missed the best ‘dern Conclave this side of the Mississippi. Croatan ‘cowboyed-up’ and rode to Camp Cherokee Scout Reservation in Yanceyville, North Carolina. Immediately, our lodge began to dominate in competitions. Croatan had only been at Camp Cherokee for a few hours and already received first place in the team historic dance competition. The other lodges received a taste of what was in store at Friday night’s show where the winning team performed for all of those in attendance.

On Saturday morning, various ceremony competition were held parallel to the OAX, where different vendors and organizations told Arromen what they were all about. After lunch, the Individual Dance Competitions were held. Numerous dancers from all over the state danced as hard as they could to represent their lodge. Croatan then won the Team Singing Competition and sang at the Saturday night show. After the host lodge, Tsoiotsi Tsogalii performed a breath taking show, members of the OA spent the rest of their nights at the Powwow or the famous Cardnival.

Sunday morning, Croatan’s Cowboys saddled up and rode on over to the church service, which was immediately followed by the closing ceremonies. The vast amount of awards were received by Croatan, including: 1st place Historic Team Dance, 1st Place Singing, many Individual Dance awards, and Ceremony awards. But perhaps the most important, besides the Overall AIA award , was receiving Honor Lodge for the 8th year in a row. Overall, and incredible time was had by all, and the preparation for next year’s Conclave at Camp Durant starts now.
